“How can I manage payables without writing checks and sharing my account information?”

Send and receive money securely without ever leaving your place of business.

It’s easy to use. Just a few clicks and money securely moves.

The secure payments network allows your business to initiate direct deposit, vendor payments or collections payments electronically. Put the world of paper checks behind you and add time to your day and stop sharing financial information with the world. It’s never been easier to originate a variety of transactions and payments.

- Receive pre-authorized customer payments.
- Set up automatic payments to vendors.
- Pay employees simply with a direct transfer of funds.
- Transfer funds from other banks to your First United operating account.

No need to worry about errant transactions.

Not only is it easy to initiate and verify payments, you can also reverse and delete transactions. The system is flexible enough to allow you to go back and undo any unintentional payments. Don’t you wish everything was this easy?
